
Announcements

Applicants are being sought for a one-year Dermatopharmacology Fellowship which combines activities in the Dermatopharmacology Section of the Skin and Cancer Unit at New York University and in the Dermatology Clinical Research Section at Hoffmann-La Roche. Candidates should have completed the clinical portion of their dermatologic training and be interested in a career in academic dermatology, the pharmaceutical industry, or a combination of both. The fellowship is available July 1, 1984. Interested physicians should send their curricula vitae to Irwin M. Freedberg, M.D., Department of Dermatology, NYU Medical Center, 550 First Avenue, New York, New York 10016.

The Section of Dermatology of the College of Physicians of Philadelphia is pleased to announce The Mohamed Amer Award for the best resident paper submitted to The Second Pan African Conference on Dermatology, Zagazig, Egypt, February 11-15, 1984. Individuals submitting papers to be presented should forward them to: Dr. L. E. Millikan, M.D., Professor and Chairman, Department of Dermatology, Tulane University School of Medicine, 1430 Tulane Avenue, New Orleans, Louisiana 70112. The deadline is December 15, 1983.

The Italian Leprosy Relief Association "Amici di Raoul Follereau," an organization for international health cooperation, offers a grant of US $20,000 for leprosy research, named after Raoul Follereau, to a young research worker in a European department. The object of the grant is to stimulate the undertaking of original research in the field of leprosy in a research department in Europe. Further details may be obtained from: "Amici di Raoul Follereau," Via Borselli 4, 40135 Bologna, Italy (telephone 051/423809-433402).

Tulane University School of Medicine, Department of Dermatology takes pleasure in announcing the first annual Pre-Mardi Gras Dermatology Course. Featured speakers will be Drs. Henry Earl Jones, Peter E. Pochi, Loren E. Golitz, and Philip C. Anderson. A wonderful opportunity to participate in Carnival revelry and acquire three full days of CME credit! Mark your calendars now for February 29-March 1, 1984. For more information or early registration: Dr. Larry E. Millikan, Professor and Chairman, Department of Dermatology, Tulane University Medical Center, 1430 Tulane Avenue, New Orleans, Louisiana 70112.

In the months ahead, the American Academy of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery is cosponsoring a record 19 workshops and symposia in plastic surgery of the face, head, and neck. The March 29-April 1, 1984 Symposium on Hair Replacement Surgery in Palm Springs, California, among others, may interest dermatologists. All workshops and symposia are accredited by the AMA continuing education program. For further information: Ted A. Cook, M.D., Chairman, The Oregon Health Sciences University, Department of Otolaryngology, 3181 Sam Jackson Park Road, Portland, Oregon 97201.

The Ninth Annual Meeting of The Society for Pediatric Dermatology will take place on June 28-30, 1984, at Caesar's Tahoe, Lake Tahoe, Stateline, Nevada. This meeting is cosponsored by the Department of Dermatology, Stanford University School of Medicine. For information: Paul H. Jacobs, M.D., Department of Dermatology, Stanford University School of Medicine, Stanford, California 94305 (415/497-7854).
